

How would you rate these questions? How would members of your team rate them? Check one box per question.		Almost Never	Infrequently	Half of the Time	Most Often	Almost Always
1	We deal with each other directly when there is disagreement or problems.
2	We have the challenging discussions we need to when there is disagreement.
3	In difficult times, we support each other.
4	In difficult times, we avoid blaming.
5	We take risks to share information and feelings that affect performance.
6	We readily ask each other for help.
7	We readily give each other help.
8	We avoid competing for power and control.
9	We hold each other accountable to our commitments.
10	We involve others in those decisions that will affect them.
11	We are willing to sacrifice our own interests for the good of the “team.”
12	Roles and responsibilities are clear within this team.
13	When feeling vulnerable or unsure we express our fears and concerns.
14	We hold ourselves and each other accountable to model high standards and values.
15	We consult with and consider each other when making decisions.
16	As a team we are effective at making good decisions.
17	We openly discuss our current individual challenges when we are struggling.
18	Within our team we model the same behaviors we expect of those we lead.
19	We work together to ensure that the teams we lead interact effectively.
20	When we make decisions as a team there is no doubt that we are all on board.
Results						